THE BRIEFLESS BARRISTER.

JOHN G. SAXE.

An Attorney was taking a turn;
In shabby habiliments drest;
His coat it was shockingly worn,
And the rust had invested his vest

His breeches had suffered a breach,
His linen and worsted were worse;
He had scarce a whole crown in his hat,
And not half-a-crown in his purse.

And thus as he wandered along,
A cheerless and comfortless elf,
He sought for relief in a song,
Or complainingly talked to himself:

"Unfortunate man that I am!
I've never a client but grief;
The case is, I've no case at all,
And in brief, I've no'er had a brief!

"I've waited and waited in vain,
Expecting an 'opening' to find,
Where an honest young lawyer might gain
Some reward for the toil of his mind.

"'Tis not that I'm wanting in law,
Or lack an intelligent face,
That others have cases to plead,
While I have to plead for a case.

"O, how can a modest young man
E'er hope for the smallest progression,—
The profession's already so full
Of lawyer's so full of profession!"

While thus he was strolling around,
His eye accidentally fell
On a very large hole in the ground,
And he sighed to himself, "It is well!"

To curb his emotions he sat
On the curb-stone the space of a minute,
Then cried, "Here's an opening at last!"
And in less than a jiffy was in it!

Next morning twelve citizens came,
('Twas the coroner bade them attend,)
To the end that it might be determined
How the man determined his end!

"The man was a lawyer, I hear,"
Quoth the foreman who sat on the corpse;
"A lawyer? Alas!" said another,
"Undoubtedly he died of remorse!"

"A third said, "He knew the deceased,
An attorney well versed in the laws,
And as to the cause of his death,
'Twas no doubt from the want of a cause."

The jury decided at length,
After solemnly weighing the matter,
That the lawyer was drownded, because
He couldn't keep his head above water!"

AN ADVENTURE ON THE CARS.

There were five of us—yes, five as happy fellows as ever were let loose from College. It was vacation, and we concluded to make a trip to the Falls. We got aboard the cars at N——, and were soon travelling very rapidly toward our destination.

We had just seated ourselves, and prepared for a comfortable smoke, when in came the conductor, and who should it be but our old friend B——. After the common salutations—"how are you, old fellow," etc., had passed, Fred said he had some business for us to attend to.

"Out with it, old chum," said we; "anything at all will be acceptable, so let us have it."

"Well, boys," said Fred, in a very confidential tone, "in that next car there is as lovin' a pair as it was ever my lot to see. They are going down to H—— to get married, and now if you can have any fun over it, just pitch in. They must be cared for, and I don't know who can do it better than you."

In a moment Fred was gone, and we set our heads together to form a plan for taking care of the lovers.

"I have it, boys," said Bill Severs; "we must make that girl think that her lover is a married—"

"That's it Bill—that's it," said we, not giving him time to finish the sentence.

"That he is a married man and the father of children," said Bill.

"That's the game, boys, now let us play it out."

It devolved upon me to commence the operations. Accordingly, I entered the car in which we were informed the lovers were. The girl thinking, I suppose, that she must give her lover all the seat, had taken a seat on his knee, and he, for the purpose of protecting her, of course, had thrown his arm around her waist; and so they sat, in real soft lover's style.

All this I gathered at a glance. Stepping up to them, I said:

"Why, Jones, what in the deuce are you doing with this girl?"

The girl arose hastily and seated herself on the seat.

"See here, stranger," said the fellow, "you're a mite mistakon; my name ain't Jones."

"Why, Jones," said I, "you certainly haven't left your wife and children, and tried to pass yourself off for a single man, have you."

"I tell you my name ain't Jones; it's Harper. It never was Jones; 'taint a going to be nuther."

I merely shook my head, and passed on to another seat to see the rest of the fun. The girl looked "wild" after I sat down; but Jones alias Harper soon convinced her that I was mistaken.

"Why, Jones, you here? How did you leave your wife and babies?"

"Now, see here, stranger, you ain't the fust man that's called me Jones to-day, and I reckon I must look arfully like him; but I sin't Jones, and mor'n that you must not call me Jones. I hain't got a wife and babies either, but this 'erc gal an' me is a goin' to splice, an' then you can talk about my wife; and I wouldn't wonder but what in the course of time you might talk about the babies, too; but you musta't call me Jones!"

This retort brought forth vociferous laughter from the spectators, and brought blushes to the face of "the gal that was goin' to be spliced."

"Ah, Jones," said Gregg, "you will regret this in future. I pity your wife and children, and this poor girl!"

"So, Mr. Harper, your real name is Jones, is it; and you have been foolin me, have you? Well, we ain't spliced yet, and I don't think we shall be soon," said the girl, and her eyes fairly flashed fire.

"Jane, Jane," said Harper, "don't you know I'm Bill Harper? Thar ain't a drop of Jones blood in me, and I will prove it to you."

At this moment, Jeff Jackson, Bill Severs, and Jim Beyers entered, and of course their attention was called to Harper by his loud talking. They stepped up to him and said:

"Why, Jones, for what is all this fuss?"

This was more than Harper could stand. He leaped upon a seat.

"Now," said he, my name ain't Jones, an' I can lick the feller that says it is."

By this time we had got to H—— and our friend Fred came into the car and made Harper keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train going back to N—— which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. We learned afterwards, that he proved himself Bill Harper, instead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal, Jane, "got spliced."

Daring Deed of a Girl.

A daring escape was made from the Ohio Penitentiary, last week, by a girl named Mary Fuller, who, with a man named Cheeseman, had been committed for counterfeiting. His term had expired, and Mary's was half out. By some means Cheeseman communicated to her, and a plan of escape was entered into, to be consummated the night after his discharge. The Fact of the 2d inst. says:

Cheeseman served out his time and was discharged on Saturday last. On Saturday night the girl made her escape from the fifth story of the prison, by passing out of her window and passing along the side of the building, upon the cornice or water table, about eighteen inches broad. Passing along the front of the building, at the immense height of fifty or sixty feet from the ground, with nothing to hold to, and upon the projection scarcely visible from the ground, she reached, at the distance of about forty feet from her room window, a place where it was necessary for her to jump about twelve feet to the roof of the west wing. The leap was taken, proved a safe one, and the dauntless woman next fastened to the corner of the roof a rope which she made of her bedding, grasped it in her hands, and swinging from the roof, passed down on the outside of the wall over windows where other convicts were sleeping, and down to terra firma, where, at a distance of forty-five feet below the roof, she alighted in the arms of her confederate in guilt. It is doubtful whether the feat performed by this abandoned girl was ever equalled in the history of escapes from prisons, by any felon, either of her own or the sterner sex, and it affords another striking illustration of the old saw, that "when a woman will, she will" The guilty pair left the city after the scene narrated, and were not found until last evening, when Warden Van Slyke, acting upon information received from private sources, went to a heavy forest, about ten miles from the city, on the Elm Creek road, where Cheeseman and the woman, who had staked and lost her all upon him, were found domiciled in an old cabin, long since deserted by the owner of the land. The result is, that the girl is again in the Penitentiary, and her Cheese-man is boxed up in the City Prison, to await an examination on Saturday, for having aided a prisoner to escape.

CATCHING A LAWYER.—An advocate of a provincial town in France was recently waited on by a sausage dealer, who said:

"Sir, I want to consult you. If a dog devours sausages placed in my window, can I make his owner pay the damages?"

"Certainly."

"In that case, please to pay me twelve francs, for your dog has just eaten three sausages of mine to that extent."

The advocate paid the money. An hour after, the advocate's clerk called on the sausage dealer, and claimed twelve francs fifty centimes for "a consultation about sausages;" and the tradesman, to his intense mortification, had to hand over the sum claimed.

Proportions of the Human Form.

The proportions of the human figure are strictly mathematical. The whole figure is six times the length of the foot.—Whether the form be slender or plump this rule holds good. Any deviation from it is a departure from the highest beauty of proportion. The Greeks make all their statues according to this rule. The face from the highest point of the forehead where the hair begins, to the end of the chin, is one-tenth of the whole stature.—The hand, from the wrist to the end of the middle finger is the same. The chest is a fourth, and from the nipples to the top of the head is the same. From the top of the chest to the highest point of the forehead is a seventh. If the length of the face, from the roots of the hair to the chin, be divided into three equal parts the first division determines where the eyebrows meet, and the second the place of the nostrils. The naval is the central point of the human body, and if a man should lie on his back with his arms extended, the periphery of the circle which might be described around him, with the naval for its centre, would touch the extremities of his hands and feet. The height from the feet to the top of the head is the same as the distance from one extremity to the other when the arms are extended. These are the general measures of the species.

ELOPEMENT AND REMORSE.—A few days ago, one of our city officials, tired of the domestic restraints thrown around him by an exacting wife, resolved upon eloping with a young lady with whom he had for a time been desperately smitten. He secretly packed his trunks, and conveyed them to the depot of the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis Railroad, and the young lady aforesaid performed a similar operation and away they went on the wings of love towards St. Louis. By and by conscience, that worm that gnaws into the very soul of guilt, seized upon him, and remorse followed. He wished himself back by his deserted fireside a thousand times. By the time he had reached ——, a little station a few miles this side of St. Louis, he was almost frenzied. He had not the moral courage to reveal his feelings to the guilty partner of his flight, and meeting a deputy Sheriff of this county, he begged him to extricate him from his predicament. His friend, the deputy, acceded to this reasonable demand, and when the absconding husband had seated himself in the car, he walked up to him, and reading a bogus warrant, arrested him and took him out of the car just as it was moving off, leaving the damsel to pursue her journey alone.—Chicago Herald.

THE LAST DODGE.—A day or two ago a man respectably dressed, called at the grocery store in the upper part of Philadelphia, and inquired after a late attendant in the store. He was informed that he had gone to California, upon which he expressed his regret that he had not been able to see him before he started, as he owed him twenty dollars, which he was anxious to pay. The storekeeper said he would forward it to him, if desired, and, with thanks, the other assented, and handed over a fifty dollar bill, receiving thirty dollars in change. The fifty dollar bill was subsequently proved to be a counterfeit.

NAKED TRUTH.—Truth and Falsehood travelling one warm day, met at a river, and both went to bathe at the same place, Falsehood, coming first out of the water, took his companion's clothes and left his vile raiment, and then went on his way. Truth, coming out of the water, sought in vain for his own proper dress, disdaining to wear the garb of Falsehood. Truth started all naked in pursuit of the thief, but not being so swift of foot, has never overtook the fugitive. Ever since he has been known as "Naked Truth."

Peoples' State Convention.

The reports of the opening scenes of Convention indicate that there was a stormy time. Much difficulty was experienced in selecting a temporary Chairman. Finally, Francis Jordan, of Bedford, was selected. The committee on permanent organization selected Ex-Gov. Pollock, for President, assisted by thirty-two Vice Presidents. On being conducted to his seat, the President made a patriotic speech which was received with much applause.

The session was taken up principally in the afternoon, in the discussion of the manner in which the delegates to the Chicago Convention should be appointed, but the matter was finally disposed of by the passage of the following resolution—every member of the Convention with the exception of four, voting for it :

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to prepare an address and resolutions, and report the names of Senatorial delegates to the National Convention, to be held in Chicago, and the delegates from the different congressional districts name four persons from each district, as representative delegates; and the said delegates are instructed to cast the vote of the State as a unit, and to vote for Gen. Cameron while his name remains before that body. Provided, That in the districts where the delegates are already named, such delegates are accepted by this convention.

The nomination for Governor was next brought before the Convention, and Messrs. Howe, Covode, Calvin, Taggart, Todd, Strong, Curtin, Kline, Scranton, and Haines were placed in nomination by their different friends. Mr. Todd's name was subsequently withdrawn, and the balloting resulted as follows :

First Ballot,		Second Ballot,
Curtin,	56	Curtin.	74
Covode,	22	Covode,	27
Howe,	18	Howe,	10
Taggart,	16	Taggart,	11
Kline,	12	Kline,	7
Haines,	5	Haines,	4
Calvin,	5	Calvin,	1
Scranton,	4	Scranton,	(withdrawn)

Mr. Curtin was thereupon declared nominated, and, on motion, the nomination was made unanimous.

A committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Curtin, to inform him of his nomination, and invite him to appear before the Convention—which invitation he accepted, and addressed the Convention in a brief, but well-conceived speech. Short speeches were also made by Taggart, Covode, Calvin, and others.

The next business in order was reports from the several delegations, on an electoral ticket, when the following names were presented by the delegations to compose the Electoral Ticket, viz :

The Committee on resolutions then made their report, after which the Convention adjourned.

☞ The Democrats of Altoona did a good day's work at their election on Friday, having elected their whole ticket, with one or two unimportant exceptions. They are jubilant over this result, as they have a good right to be.—The Republican hosts were led on by Senator Hall in person, who is supposed to have left for Harrisburg with a pretty large flea in his ear.

The above ungentlemanly and untrue allusion to Hon. L. W. Hall, appeared in the Hollidaysburg Standard, of last week. It is, so far as that gentleman is concerned, utterly untrue. The legislature having adjourned on Thursday before our borough election until the following Monday, Mr. Hall came home without even knowing, (as we happen to know) until after he arrived, that there was an election on Friday. He took no part whatever in it, being occupied the whole day in his office. The remembrance of the vote of this place, on the second Tuesday of October last, when Mr. H. did lead in person, will account for the Standard's attempt to be witty at the expense of truth.

PICKLED OYSTERS BY U. S. MAIL.—The Washington States, as an instance of the abuse of the franking privilege, states as a fact, that a Virginia member of the House the other day franked a gallon can of pickled oysters to one of his constituents. The can, after being carefully enveloped in government wrapping paper, was directed, franked and sent through the mail on a voyage to the mountains of Western Virginia. While members use the mail for such purposes it will be in vain to look to them for the abolition of the privilege.

CONVENTION OF OLD SOLDIERS.—A convention of the surviving soldiers of the second war of Independence was held at Harrisburg on the 22d of February. The object of the Convention was to take measures to urge again upon Congress the justice and propriety of admitting these defenders of their country to a participation in the benefits of the Pension Laws, now confined exclusively to Revolutionary soldiers.

LETTER FROM HARRISBURG.

Correspondence of the Tribune.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 28, 1860.

Gentlemen:—The political Conventions are putting a dead lock on legislation—little having been done last week, and probably less will be done this week, as both Houses have adjourned over until next Friday.

I suppose it is useless for me to say anything about the Convention of the People's Party held here last week, as you will be likely to give at least an abstract of the proceedings I can only say that the Convention ended more harmoniously than it commenced, and as far as my knowledge goes, the action of the Convention gives satisfaction to the people at large.

To-morrow the Convention of the Democrats will be held in Reading. It will unquestionably be the largest gathering of the kind ever held in the State. I was in Philadelphia yesterday, and found the city crowded with distinguished Democratic politicians from every section—and among the rest his serene excellency Senator Bigler, who goes to Reading as the direct agent of the Administration of J. B., to fix things.—I shall not be much surprised, however, if he goes back to Washington with a very big flea in his ear! Accounts from Reading last evening stated that the little city was already crowded to its utmost capacity—nearly forty-eight hours before the meeting of the Convention, and long trains were still pouring in. As I anticipate a hot time, and an exceedingly lively one, I shall go over this afternoon.

The Philadelphians are a queer people, and sometimes give birth to very queer notions. The last on record is a bill introduced into the Senate on Friday last, by Senator Smith, which has for its object the chartering of a Company to insure the ultimate payment of promissory notes. Fire, Marine, Live Stock and Life Insurance Companies are among the institutions of the day, and it is even said that in Paris there is an Association for insuring the fidelity of wives, but an insurance of promissory notes is something new under the sun; but, unfortunately, the idea is impracticable. A company of this kind could hold the destinies of every poor devil in Philadelphia, who was necessarily compelled to give his I. O. U.'s, in the hollow of its hands.

Another company asks to be incorporated to insure Rail Road travellers against injury to life or limb. This is an old and exploded idea.—Rail Road Companies themselves are responsible for such injuries, when caused by the negligence of their servants, and it is not likely that any company would issue a policy to pay a man damages incurred through his own negligence.

A bill has also been introduced by one of the Philadelphia members, having for its object the crushing out of the numerous fortune-tellers in the city. This bill should become a law. Few know to what an alarming extent this system of swindling is carried. Credulous servant girls, and people who are weak and silly enough to believe those who have reduced this system of swindling to a science, pay to keep up no less than twenty of these establishments in Philadelphia alone.

Yesterday in the Senate Mr. Miller called up the bill entitled an act to prevent recovery for the sale of adulterated liquors, which was passed second reading, and laid over.

Quite a number of distinguished mountaineers are here, on their way to Reading.

Yours, LOGAN.

A CHILD BORN IN THE SNOW AND FROZEN TO DEATH.—The Armstrong Democrat, published at Kittaning, in this State, relates the following horrible story; "A case of child birth came to our knowledge a short time ago, so peculiar in its character, and horrible in result, that we cannot refrain giving facts, withholding names. A young lady, we shall presume her to be, in this county, "loved not wisely," and fell a sacrifice to the wiles of the seducer. On Sunday, the 1st of January, one of the most bitter cold days this winter, she left the house at which she was employed as a help, and retiring a short distance from it, in the open air, upon the snow, gave birth to a living, healthy child, after which she returned to the house as if nothing had occurred. The woman in whose employ she was, noticing that all was not right, by marks tracked to where the child was lying upon the snow, kicking about and crying. She took it to the house and cared for it as tenderly as possible, but the surface of the body was so badly frozen, that in a few days it became literally flayed and died. Its inhuman mother recovered in due time, having been but little the worse of her exposure."

Napoleon and the Pope.

Scarcely anything in the French and English papers, says a New York paper, but the controversy between Napoleon and the Pope. It is felt that it may involve very grave consequences.—There are serious apprehensions of personal danger to Napoleon from the knife or the pistol of some bigoted adherent of the Pope. Such an event as the assassination of Napoleon by an emissary of the Church, at this crisis, might be the signal for a general revolution in the Catholic countries of Europe. The most rash and improbable designs are attributed to the Pope.—Letters from Rome say that he is deciding upon exciting a religious war by joining with the Bourbons of Naples and Austria and instigating civil commotion in the Italian States. The Pope has been shocked by several public demonstrations of sympathy with Napoleon in Rome itself. On the appearance of Napoleon's letter to the Pope, and also on the occasion of the change of the Sardinian ministry and the restoration of Count Cavour, crowds assembled about the French garrison and raised the shout of "Viva Napoleon," "Viva l'Italia," and refused to disperse at the orders of the police. At such a moment they might as well have cried, "Down with the Pope." The suppression of the ultra-Catholic organ, the Paris Univers, is defended in a semi-official article in the Constitutionnel, which is striking and significant in many respects. It revives an old law, almost forgotten, as a formal justification of the suppression, which decreed that no bull, prescript, &c., of the Pope, should be published without the consent of the Government. The law had been for years practically obsolete, but it was convenient for use in this emergency. The question of greatest interest now is, whether the Pope will submit or resist. If the latter there will be troublous times in the church, and possibly a new religious war in Europe. It is reported that the Queen of Spain has assured the Pope of her support in the maintenance of his rights, but neither Spain nor Austria are in a position to give efficient aid to the Pope, and none of the other Catholic powers will be disposed to do it.

☞ A man named Stephen Hamel, of Cincinnati, endeavored, the other night, to drive some cats from a garret, and struck one of them several blows with a stick, when suddenly the cat leaped upon him with the ferocity of a tiger, and before he could free himself from its grasp, scratched and bit him about the face in a terrible manner. The next day he grew delirious, and his head swelled up to twice its natural size. In this condition he lingered for several days, when death came to his relief.

☞ A young woman named Mary Graham, shot George Fitzhugh, the overseer of a plantation in Hinds county, Miss. Fitzhugh had seduced the girl under promise of marriage, and when asked by his victim to fulfull his promise, he scoffed at her petition, whereupon she drew a revolver and shot him three times. He is not expected to recover.

☞ A worthy Scotch couple, when asked how their son had broken down so early in life, gave the following explanation: "When we began life together we worked hard and lived upon porridge, and such like, gradually adding to our comforts as our means improved, until we were able at length to dine off a bit of roast ment, and sometimes a boiled chuckie (chicken;) but as for Jack, our son, he worked backward, and began with the chuckie first."

☞ The Opposition party of Kentucky held their convention last week. A full delegation to the National Union Convention was appointed, and an electoral ticket put in nomination.—Senator Crittenden was recommended as the Opposition candidate for the Presidency.

WORMS! WORMS!

Various theories have been started relative to the origin of intestinal worms, and yet the question is still a vexed one among medical authorities. Of one fact, however, all are informed, and in which all agree—the fatal nature of the influence they exert on children. At this season of the year, the attacks of worms are most frequent as well as most dangerous. We take great pleasure in directing the attention of parents to the Vermifuge of Dr. M'Lane, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh. It is one of the most extraordinary medicines ever introduced to the public, and has never failed of success when tried.

FITS! WHY PROMINENT.

For a long time there was a a paragraph making its regular weekly appearance in our columns, with the brief, but emphatic words "Fits! Fits!" always at the head, to some an offensive caption, but not so to the benevolent and humane, who could sympathize in the sorrows of others. Some persons are shocked at any indication of disease and are even thrown into nervous excitement on witnessing a hearse or coffin. Such are to be pitied. We should always strive to look disease and even death in the face with calmness, and especially take every opportunity for alleviating disease.—Viewed in this light, the advertisements of S. S. Hance, of 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., possess a certain interest, and those who know of any one suffering from Epilepsy, Spasms, or Fits of any kind, should feel it a pleasure to cut out his advertisement, or in some other way send word to the afflicted of the great value of his remedies. They can be sent to any part of the country by mail. Price, $3 per box. Two, $5. Twelve, $24.

☞ The use of DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS for Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Heaviness of the Stomach or any other like affection, is second to none in America or abroad. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy so indispensable for the restoration of health. The numerous acknowledgements of its superior excellence and beneficent results, have assured the proprietors that it cannot but prove a great cure to the afflicted, and impart vitality to the thorough system.

☞ "OH THAT THE SKIN of an innocent sheep should be made into parchment, and written on to the undoing of a man!" quoth Shakespeare. He might also have deplored the ruining of men's forms by the uncouth manner in which some ungracious tailors butcher up the cloth made from the wool grown by these same harmless sheep. To see the perfection of the art of working up cloth wisely and well, and so as to set off to the best advantage the forms of its wearers, call at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut St., above Sixth, Phila., and examine their stock of garments for gentlemen and youths.

LOCAL ITEMS.

ADDRESS TO YOUNG MEN.—An address to the young men of Altoona will be delivered in the Presbyterian Church, at 11 o'clock A. M., on Sabbath next, (March 4th,) by Rev. A. B. Clark. The middle block of pews will be reserved for their accommodation. All are invited to attend.

A MODEL BOY.—On Wednesday evening last, the Local Freight train west, on the Mountain Division, was an hour and thirty minutes behind time, and consequently was running at a pretty smart speed. About a mile east of Conemaugh, at a sharp curve, a large rock fell on the track and broke, one-half going into the river and the other half remaining on the north track on which the Local Freight was running. A little boy, on his way from school, discovered the rock on the track and hearing the train coming took a red cap from the head of his little sister, ran with all his speed to meet the train and waving the cap, succeeded in stopping it. The engineer says that he certainly would have run into the rock, had he not been signalled, as he could not have seen it in time to check the train. The boy who thus exhibited so much forethought, and a knowledge of the use of signals, and the consequences to the train in case it was not stopped, is said to be only about 10 years of age. The taking of his sister's red cap to use as a signal, evinces a self-possession and thoughtfulness in such an emergency, which would do credit to any man of mature years. For one of his years he is certainly a model boy. His actions in this case certainly deserves (and we are pleased to say he has received) a suitable reward.

CHURCH DOOR LOAFING.—Every paper in the country should contain an article weekly, on the pernicious and reprehensible practice of church door loafing. It is a trick indulged in by a set of young men, who, while they have not yet sufficient courage to walk up to a girl and offer their arm, have all the inclination. They no doubt sometimes screw up their courage to the point, and think they will take a girl home, but when the ladies step out of church the courage of the would be gallants all ooze out at their finger ends, and instead of being gallants, as they should be, they make themselves blackguards by indecently peering into the faces of the ladies and making ungentlemanly remarks.—Since these young men have not the courage or manliness to ask the privilege of accompanying the ladies home, we would suggest that the ladies act the gallant and ask of the young men the privilege of escorting them home, as they certainly should not be allowed to stay away from their mothers so long after nightfall. We hope the ladies will consider this matter seriously and do something for the young men soon. We know they will receive the thanks of the mother's of the young men for bringing them home at reasonable hours.

THE COLPORTEUR.—Mr. Jonathan Focht, Colporteur of the American Tract Society, who has just finished canvassing this place, gives us the following statement of the number of families visited and the amount of his sales as compared with those of last year:—

Families visited in 1859,	653,—	Amount of sales,	$271 95
" " 1860,	827,—	"	303 20
Increase,	174		31 25

Mr. Focht makes it his business to visit every family in the town which he canvasses, taking the streets in regular order, and his facilities for obtaining the exact number of families, are, therefore, the best that could be adopted. The increase in the number of families in this place, in one year, is more than double what we imagined it would be. Taking the general average of five to a family, we have 870 of an increase of population in one year. Should we have a corresponding increase for the next five years (some think it will be greater), we will be after applying for a city charter.

Mr. Focht desires us to return his thanks to the citizens of this place for the kind manner in which they received his visits and their liberality in the purchase of his works.

FAREWELL SERMON.—We understand that Rev. J. Steck, of the Lutheran Church of this place, preached his farewell sermon on Sunday morning last, and on yesterday took his departure for Chambersburg, from the church of which place he had received a call. Mr. Steck is an able minister, and we regret his departure from our midst. We hope he may find his new home pleasant, and that his ministry may be successful. Rev. M. Fitchner, of Newry, has been named as his successor, in this place, but we have not learned whether his selection has been fully decided upon and concurred in by the church.

APPOINTMENT.—Samuel D. Young, Esq., of Philadelphia, has been appointed Superintendent of the Middle Division of the Penn'a Railroad, and enters upon the duties of his office to-day. He comes highly recommended as an experienced and careful railroader, having heretofore been connected with the Philadelphia Division. We welcome him to a home in our mountain city, and hope he may find the change from city to mountain life an agreeable one in every respect.

BOROUGH ACCOUNT.—In another column of to-day's paper will be found the receipts and expenditures of the borough for the past year. We believe that if ever a set of men tried to do their duty toward those who gave them the charge of their affairs, it was those who composed the Board of retiring Councilmen. That they should please all, could not have been expected, and we don't believe there ever was a board that pleased everybody, nevertheless, we think the retiring board pleased about as many and did as much for the improvement of the town, as any of their predecessors. The members of the board for the coming year entered upon their duties on Monday evening last. They have a wide field for improvement open before them, and many conflicting interests to encounter, but we hope and believe they will pursue that course which will be productive of the greatest good to the greatest number, without doing a radical wrong to any.

RUN-OFF AND BREAKDOWN.—On Friday evening last, two horses attached to a carriage, the property of Col. E. Baker, of Allegheny Furnace, took fright at something in front of Mann's store, and started down Virginia street at a speed not consistent with safety. First the carriage struck a butcher wagon, standing in front of Leonard's Market house, breaking an axle of the wagon, proceeding a little further, it run into the gutter in front of Jaggard's store, where one of the wheels broke down and brought the carriage to a sudden halt, but the horses being inclined to go on broke the tongue loose and proceeded on their way down town, much to the detriment of tree boxes and trees, and were finally brought up by a tree in front of the Superintendent's office. The driver, who was in the carriage at the time, and had a fast hold on the lines, was jerked out rather unceremoniously when the carriage halted, but was not much injured.

GOOD FLOUR.—Good flour is almost a godsend these days, the preponderance of bad flour being so great. That which is now called good wheat flour, would hardly have been considered good rye flour a few years since. The fault, however, is said not to be with the millers, but in the grain, it having grown too large last year, and been too much exposed to the sun while ripening. Be these excuses for bad flour true or false, we know that the flour manufactured at Baker's Crystal Spring Mills is good flour, (notwithstanding the defects in the grain) as we have tried some of it. This Mill has always been celebrated for turning out the best flour to be had in this or any other part of the country, and it bids fair to keep up its reputation. Flour from the Crystal Spring Mills may be had in sacks of 25 or 50 lbs. weight, or in barrels, at almost any of the stores in town.

THE BEST COUGH REMEDY KNOWN.—There is no doubt about the fact that Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup is one of the most remarkable cough medicines now offered to the public. Old cases of lung disease, bronchial, and every variety of lung disease, have yielded to its wonderful powers, and we therefore feel no hesitation in recommending our readers who may be afflicted in that way to try it. There is very little cost attending the purchase of a bottle, which though it should not cure, it will do no harm. We know Dr. Keyser to be a regular physician; conscientious in the discharge of his business, and our readers will find it safer to trust such a man's statements, than hundreds of those who are unknown to the community. For sale by Geo. W. Kessler.

SMALL POX.—IS THIS A FACT?—If the following, which we find among the local items of a cotemporary, be true, it will certainly be of advantage to gas companies and gas fitters:—A medical gentleman writes to a New York paper that from all the information he can obtain from medical men now having cases of Small Pox under treatment, that there is no house where gas is burned, of the ordinary consumption, in which the disease has yet found lodgment. The gas is a powerful disinfectant, and hence there is no contagion within the circle of its influence. He says that a person burning gas may contract the disease abroad and take it home with him, but it will not be communicated to any other member of his family.

☞ We stepped into the picture gallery of Mr. Amey, a few days since, and examined a few of his specimens, and if we are a judge of good pictures, and we think we are, we consider his specimens the best ever exhibited in the place. Why, some of the pictures of our friends were so perfect that they almost spoke, and we felt like saying "good morning" to them. If you wish to view the beautiful and perfect, go to Amey's gallery. We will not advise you to get a picture taken, for the reason that you will not leave without one if you examine his specimens.

DAYS TO BE BORN ON.—Born on a Sunday, a gentleman; born on a Monday, fair in the face; born on a Tuesday, full of grace; born on a Wednesday, sour and grum; born on a Thursday, welcome home; born on a Friday, free in giving; born on a Saturday, work hard for a living. We do not know what day we were born on, but think it must have been either Monday or Saturday. The women think the former, we think the latter.

FRESH FISH.—John Nagle requests us to inform the citizens of Altoona, that he will keep constantly on hand a large supply of fresh fish, direct from the eastern market. They are so put up that they are as firm and fresh when they arrive here as when first caught. Give him a call.

☞ A new schedule went into effect on Monday morning last, on the Pa. R. R. It makes but little change in the running of the Passenger trains. The Fast Line East now leaves this station at 8.20, being 20 minutes later than heretofore. This is the only alteration.

LEFT FOR CONFERENCE.—Rev. S. Creighton, on Tuesday morning, left for Conference, which met at Lewisburg, Pa., yesterday. According to the usages of the Church, he will, we presume, be re-appointed to this station. He will be absent two weeks, if not longer.

PICTURE GALLERY.—W. H. Amey, of Harrisburg, would respectfully inform the citizens of Altoona and vicinity that he has taken the picture gallery of Mr. Clabaugh, in this place, where he is located permanently, and hopes by strict attention to business to merit the patronage of the public.

Pictures of all the latest styles made at short notice, warranted durable, at prices to suit the times.

THE ONLY PREPARATION WORTHY OF UNIVERSAL CONFIDENCE AND PATRONAGE.

For Statesmen, Judges, Clergymen, Ladies and Gentlemen, in all parts of the world testify to the efficacy of Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and gentlemen of the Press are unanimous in its praise. A few testimonials only can be here given; see circular for more, and it will be impossible for you to doubt.

47 Wall Street, New York. Dec. 20th, 1858.

GENTLEMEN: Your note of the 15th inst., has been received saying that you heard that I had been benefited by the use of Wood's Hair Restorative, and requesting my certificate of the fact if I had no objection to give it.

I award it to you cheerfully, because I think it due. My age is about 50 years; the color of my hair is auburn, and inclined to curl. Some five or six years since it began to turn gray, and the scalp on the crown of my head to lose its sensibility and dandruff to form upon it. Each of these disagreeabilities increased with time, and about four months since a fourth was added to them, by hair falling off the top of my head and threatning to make me bald.

In this unpleasant predicament, I was induced to try Wood's Hair Restorative, mainly to arrest the falling off of my hair, for I had really no expectation that gray hair could ever be restored to its original color except from dyes. I was, however, greatly surprised to find after the use of two bottles only, that not only was the falling off arrested, but the color was restored to the gray hairs and sensibility to the scalp, and dandruff ceased to form on my head, very much to the gratification of my wife, at whose solicitation I was induced to try it.

For this, among the many obligations I owe to her sex, I strongly recommend all husbands who value the admiration of their wives to profit by my example, and use it if growing gray or getting bald.

Very respectfully, BEN. A. LAVENDER.

To O. J. Wood & Co., 444 Broadway, New York.

My family are absent from the city, and I am no longer at No. 11 Carrol Place.

Saamaston, Ala. July 20th, 1859.

To PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir: Your "Hair Restorative" has done my hair so much good since I commenced the use of it, that I wish to make known to the PUBLIC of its effects on the hair, which are great. A man or woman may be nearly deprived of hair, and by a resort to your "Hair Restorative," the hair will return more beautiful than ever; at least this is my experience. Believe it all! Yours truly. WM. H. KENEDY.

P. S.—You can publish the above if you like. By publishing in our Southern papers you will get more patronage south. I see several of your certificates in the Mobile Mercury, a strong Southern paper. W. H. Kenedy.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1851. I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.

FINLEY JOHNSON.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

VALUABLE REPOR

HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS.

It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilious Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhœa, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND AGUE.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN STEREOSCOPIC EMPORIUM.

E. ANTHONY, 308 Broadway, New York.

After May 1st, 1860, at 501 Broadway, two doors from the St. Nicholas Hotel.

The Stereoscope is the most instructive, interesting, entertaining, amusing and exciting of modern inventions.

None are too young, none too old, none too intelligent, none too uneducated, to acknowledge its worth and beauty.

No home is complete without it, and it must and will penetrate everywhere.

It presents to your view every part of the world, in all the relief, boldness, perspective, and sharpness of detail, as if you were on the spot.

Photographers are everywhere exploring Europe, Asia, Africa, America, in search of the grand and the beautiful, and the results of their skill are constantly enriching our stock.

We have an immense variety of paper Views of Scenes in Paris, London, England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, France Belgium, Holland, Switzerland, Spain, The Rhine, Versailles St. Cloud, Fontainebleau, Tuileries, Italy, Turkey, Egypt Athens, the Holy Land, China, India, Crystal Palace, also Groupe Historical, amusing marriage scenes, breakfast scenes, pic-nics, statuary, &c., &c. An exquisite assortment of illuminated interiors of Palaces, Churches, and Cathedrals of France, Italy, &c., &c. The effect of these illuminated views is most remarkable.

Every gentleman of wealth and refined taste should have in his drawing-room some of our exquisite views on glass, with a reviving stereoscope, showing 12, 25, 50 or 100 scenes. Nothing can be more fascinating, and one can offer no greater treat to a friend fond of the picturesque and the beautiful.

Anthony's Instantaneous Stereoscopic Views are the latest Photographic wonder. They are taken in the fortieth part of a second, and everything no matter how rapidly it may be moving, is depicted as sharply and distinctly as if it had been perfectly at rest. This gives an additional value, for to the beauties of inanimate nature it adds the charm of life and motion. The process is a discovery of our own, and being unknown in Europe, we receive from London and Paris large orders for Anthony's Instantaneous Views of American life and scenery.

Among other things we have just published Stereoscopic Illustrations of the Scene of the Fulton Street Prayer Meetings, in which many hearts feel an interest. The particulars of this will be found in our catalogue.

Our Catalogue of subjects and prices will be forwarded to any address on receipt of a stamp.

Parties at a distance sending us $3, $5, $10, $15, $20, or $25, can have a good instrument and such pictures as they may request, sent by express.

Views alone, (without instrument) can be sent by mail.

Parties who wish to be advised of everything really valuable in the line that comes out, may send us their names to place on record, and we will keep them posted at our own expense.

Men of leisure will find Photography a most fascinating and delightful amusement. We are prepared to fit out amateurs with everything necessary for their success together with instructions "How to take Stereoscopic Pictures." E. ANTHONY,

Importer and Manufacturer of Photographic Materials, Stereoscopes and Stereoscopic Views.

☞ Merchants from every section of the country are respectfully invited to make an examination of our stock, as our discount to the trade will be liberal.

To PHOTOGRAPHERS.—First class Stereoscopic Negatives wanted.

Send by mail a print unmounted, with price of Negative Jan. 12.-4m [Cut this out for future reference.

ENTIRELY NEW,

and he flatters himself that he has something to please the eye of of every lady, and suit the wants of every gentleman. He deems it unnecessary to enumerate all the articles on the shelves, (as to do so would require a whole newspaper,) but would say that he has everything in the line of which this meridian calls for, and all just suited to the seasons, together with a well selected assortment of House Furnishing Goods, such as Carpets, Window Blinds, Shades, &c., which will commend themselves.

FOR GENTLEMEN,

He has also a tip-top assortment of GROCERIES as good, fresh and cheap as can be had this side of the place of growing or manufacture. Also, HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, and everything necessary to complete a store in a thriving town like Altoona.

All he asks is that the people call and examine his stock, which he will at all times take pleasure in showing, and he feels confident that he can send them away rejoicing, if not in the purchase of just such an article as they wanted, at the remembrance of having looked upon the handsomest stock of Goods ever exhibited in the town.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,
The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor, as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it and I am not dependant upon any one to lift me out of the mud.

Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.

Call on me, in the corner room of the "Brant House." Give me a trial and you will go away pleased.
